A minimum notice of two weeks is required for the resignation to be in good standing, unless a special request is made by the employee to leave sooner, which must be approved by the Executive Director. The employee will remain on duty for the period of notice. Failure to give adequate notice will result in resignation that is not in good standing. All uniforms, keys, equipment, tools, identification, or similar materials issued to the employee must be returned to the Employer prior to receipt of final paychecks.

Section 4:

A. It is hereby agreed that the parties hereto recognize and accept the principal of seniority in all cases of layoffs, recalls, transfers and promotions, subject to the rules and regulations of the New Jersey Department of Personnel.

F. All blue collar employees shall be required to utilize a time clock and punch in and out for their normal shift, including punching in and out for lunch time unless the nature of their duties for that day makes it impractical to punch in and out for lunch time. C. The Employer agrees to supply tools necessary for all employees to utilize in completing the various tasks which they are assigned.

D. Employer agrees to supply safety equipment for all blue-collar employees as needed. Safety shoes are required to be worn at all times on the job.

Section 2:

A. Employees who are required to wear uniforms shall wear such uniforms only while on Employer business (inclusive of going to and coming from work).

B. Employees are required to have, maintain, and wear all items included in the initial outfitting including all protective safety apparel and equipment.

C. The t-shirts are to be supplied on an annual basis and the hooded sweatshirt will be replaced biennially. Otherwise, the Employer reserves the right of inspection of worn-out garments by supervisors. Any employee who fails to wear the approved or required garments, shall be subject to disciplinary procedures and shall be required to leave work without pay until compliance is achieved. Employees shall be responsible for all repairs and replacement of tools or uniform items that are damaged due to abuse or neglect. At a minimum, this maintenance will include no more than one (1) replacement item per year. Regardless of whether abuse or neglect is suspected, the second replacement during a calendar year will be the responsibility of the employee.

D. All uniforms are expected to be kept clean, neat and presentable. Maintenance is the sole responsibility of the employee.

ARTICLE XIV - DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINE

Section 1: Employees shall be subject to various policies of the Employer. Revisions to, suspension of and or implementation of existing or new policies are at the sole discretion of the Employer. Unless otherwise provided, it is the responsibility of the immediate supervisor to enforce and maintain proper discipline. To ensure that employees are informed when infractions or shortcomings are noted, a progressive disciplinary system will ordinarily be utilized. In certain severe instances, it may be necessary to bypass one or more of the preliminary steps in order to impose suspension or dismissal of an employee. However, in no case will the option of suspension or immediate dismissal be exercised without consultation with the Executive Director by the supervisor. No employee shall be disciplined without just cause. The Union shall be notified of all disciplinary action.

Section 2: The following disciplinary procedures will apply except in such cases where other actions are warranted:

A. Step One. Personal Interview.

The immediate supervisor will have a personal interview with the employee. The supervisor will call to the employee's attention specific acts of unsatisfactory conduct or performance of duty and note that this interview was conducted in the employee's personnel file. Should there be no further unsatisfactory conduct or performance within a one (1) year period, this action shall be expunged from the employees' record if so requested by the employee in writing and will not be used against him/her in the future.

B. Step Two. Written Reprimand.

If an employee fails to improve following a personal interview, a written reprimand will be prepared by the immediate supervisor, outlining, in detail, the unsatisfactory conduct or performance of duty. If the supervisor feels it appropriate, he/she may also outline possible recommendations for correcting the unsatisfactory conduct or performance of duty. The original copy of the reprimand will be furnished to the employee and the copy signed by him or her. The acknowledged receipt of the reprimand will be sent to the Executive Director for inclusion in the employee's personnel file. If the employee refuses to sign a copy of the written reprimand such fact shall be noted and inserted in the employee's personnel file. Should there be no further unsatisfactory conduct or performance within a two (2) year period, this action shall be expunged from the employee's record if so requested by the employee in writing and will not be used against him/her in the future.

C. Step Three. Suspension Without Pay.

In the event that the employee fails to improve after both a personal interview and written reprimand, the immediate supervisor will bring the details to the attention of the Executive Director. If it appears that a suspension is necessary the Executive Director or his/her designee will issue a suspension letter to the employee. The letter will specify the reason for suspension and the length of time the employee will be suspended subject to the rules and regulations of the New Jersey Department of Personnel pertaining to local service. Should there be no further unsatisfactory conduct or performance within a five (5) year period, this action shall be expunged from the employee's record if so requested by the employee in writing and will not be used against him/her in the future.

D. Step Four. Dismissal.

In the event that unsatisfactory conduct or performance persists, dismissal may be warranted. Under those circumstances, a dismissal notice will be issued in accordance with the rules and regulations of the New Jersey Department of Personnel pertaining to local service.

Section 3: An employee shall have the right to have a Union representative present at every step of the disciplinary process.

Section 4: The Employer and the Union agree that certain types of conduct are grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. These include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Incompetency, inefficiency or failure to perform duties;
2. Insubordination;
3. Inability to perform duties;
4. Chronic or excessive absenteeism or lateness;
5. Conviction of a serious crime;
6. Conduct unbecoming a public employee;
7. Neglect of duty;
8. Misuse of public property, including motor vehicles;
9. Theft of Authority property, services, or any other object real or perceived value;
10. Falsification of records; and
11. Other sufficient cause.

Section 5: Every employee will have the right to review his/her own personnel file in the presence of their supervisor, department head, or Executive Director. A request to review must be made through the employee's supervisor, who will make the necessary arrangements for the review, after working hours. The employee's Union representative, if requested, may be present. Copies will be made of any items in the employees personnel file at the request and expense of the employee and shall be provided to the employee in a timely manner.

ARTICLE XV - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

Section 1: The purpose of this grievance procedure is to secure an equitable solution to grievances as herein defined. The parties agree that the grievances should be resolved at the lowest possible administrative level, therefore, no grievance shall bypass any step of the grievance procedure except as expressly provided herein and any failure to prosecute a grievance within the time periods provided shall constitute an absolute bar to relief and shall prohibit the grievant from prosecuting his grievance in any forum thereafter. This grievance procedure constitutes the sole and exclusive method for raising and disposing of controversies within the definition of this term.

Section 2: The term "grievance", as used herein, means any controversy arising over the interpretation of the expressed terms of this Agreement and may be raised by an individual employee, group of employees, or the Union, at the request of any such individual or group (hereinafter referred to as the "grievant").

Section 3: All grievances which may arise, shall be handled according to the following procedure:

A. Step One:

Within five (5) working days after the occurrence of the act-giving rise to the grievance, the Union representative and the aggrieved employee must discuss the alleged grievance directly with his/her immediate supervisor and try to resolve the matter, prior to filing a formal grievance. If no satisfactory disposition of the matter is reached within five (5) working days, then the matter may be submitted to Step Two.

B. Step Two:

1. In the event the grievance is not resolved to the aggrieved employee's grievance satisfaction at Step One, then within five (5) days after the response date set forth at Step One, the grievant may file a written grievance which shall be presented by the Union to the Executive Director.

2. The Union representative and the aggrieved employee shall meet with the Executive Director or his/her designee within twenty (20) days of the filing of the written grievance. The Executive Director shall investigate the grievance and render a written response to the grievant with a copy to the Union representative, within twenty (20) days after the meeting.

3. Any written grievance must identify the grievant(s) by name and be signed by all grievants and the Union representative. It must set forth the following:

- a. A statement of the facts constituting the grievance;
- b. The approximate time of occurrence
- c. The names of all Employer representatives whose action or failure to act forms the basis of the grievance
- d. The names of all witnesses the grievant intends to present;
- e. Specific contract provisions, if any, forming the basis of the grievance; and
- f. The remedy sought by the grievant.

4. Any written grievance failing to comport with the foregoing requirements shall be null and void, need not be processed by the Employer and shall constitute an abandonment of the grievance. The matters and persons specified and identified in a written grievance shall not be expanded upon or added to subsequent to its filing and the grievant shall be precluded from raising or presenting additional facts, witnesses, or contract provisions thereafter, except with the express written consent of the Employer, which shall not be unreasonably denied, unless such information was not reasonably discoverable at the time. This does not exclude the testimony of expert witnesses or the legal text of cases and exhibits.

C. Step Three:

In the event the grievance is not solved to the Union's satisfaction at Step Two, or in the event the Executive Director has not served a timely response at Step Two, then within five (5) days after the response date set forth at Step Two, the Union will present the written grievance and any written responses received at Step Two to the Commissioners. Upon receipt of the grievance by the Commissioners, the Union representatives and the aggrieved employee shall meet with the Commissioners within twenty (20) days of moving to Step 3. The Commissioners shall investigate the grievance and render a written response to the grievant, with a copy to the Union representative, within twenty (20) days of the meeting. The Commissioners may elect not to meet or to render a decision. If the Commissioners fail to meet within twenty (20) days then the grievance moves to Step Four.

D. Step Four.

1. If the Union is dissatisfied with the response of the Commissioners or if the Commissioners have failed to act within the stated time, then the unsettled grievance shall be submitted to arbitration upon written request from either the Union or the Employer provided such request is made within ten (10) days after the response date set forth at Step Three.

2. Within ten (10) days following a written request for arbitration of a grievance, one (1) representative of the Employer and one (1) representative of the Union shall jointly select a third neutral party to serve as arbitrator. In the event the two (2) parties (Employer and Union) cannot agree on the third neutral party, then the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) shall be requested to submit a panel of arbitrators and selections shall be made in accordance with the rules established by PERC.

3. The Arbitrator shall be limited to the expressed terms of this Agreement and shall neither add to, detract nor modify the Agreement in arriving at a decision. The Arbitrator shall hold hearings promptly and shall submit a decision in writing which shall be final and binding on the parties. All expenses for the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union. Preparation and the presentation expenses shall be borne separately by each party. The Arbitrator's decision shall be limited to the issues submitted and the Arbitrator shall only have jurisdiction to rule on grievances which pertain to an alleged violation or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 4: Any grievance shall be considered as settled on the basis of the last answer of the Employer if not appealed to the next Step or to arbitration within the time limitations set forth herein. Time is of the essence.

Section 5: The Union's Local representatives shall have access to the Employer's office and Union members for the adjustment of disputes or discussions of official Union business, provided appointments have been made with the Executive Director in advance and such meetings do not disrupt the normal work schedule.

Section 6: All reference to days within this Article shall refer to business days when the Employer's offices are open to the public; Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.

ARTICLE XVI - UNION BUSINESS

The Union may utilize the bulletin board to post announcements concerning Union recreation or social affairs, notice of Union elections and results thereof, notice of Union meetings, notice of Union appointments, Union minutes of joint conferences or of general meetings, and other material of a non-controversial nature. Employer reserves the right to refuse to allow the posting of any notice not comporting with the foregoing.

Section 2: The amount of monthly dues will be certified in writing by a check-off list submitted by the Treasurer of the Union.

Section 3: Dues shall be deducted from employee's pay once a month on the first pay period of each month and will be transmitted by check within ten (10) days after the deductions have been made together with a list of names showing employees for whom deductions have been made.

Section 4: For any employee in the bargaining unit who has not signed a dues deduction authorization card after thirty (30) days of employment, the Employer will deduct from all such employees, an Agency Fee and/or Maintenance Fee not to exceed eighty-five (85%) percent of the regular dues each month at the time the regular dues are deducted and remit such Agency Fee and/or Maintenance Fee charge to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union.
